

Catcott Primary School Curriculum Statement

History

At Catcott we aim to create historians who are curious about the past, who develop an understanding and appreciation of evidence about the past and whose lives are enriched by the shared experiences of our history – locally, nationally and internationally.

Intent	Implementation	Impact
What will take place before teaching in the classroom?	What will this look like in the classroom?	How will this be measured?
The school's senior leadership team will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Lead the school staff to develop a clear overarching curriculum intent which drives the ongoing development and improvement of all curriculum subjects. • Ensure that the curriculum leaders have appropriate time to develop their specific curriculum intent through careful research and development. • Provide sufficient funding to ensure that implementation is high quality. 	Our teaching sequence will be: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Big picture: Placing of the History being studied in the chronological context of previous learning, using the class timeline. • Daily review: Brief review of learning covered in previous lesson/s • Specify key vocabulary to be used and its meaning • Conduct Historical enquiry using a variety of sources and / or artefacts • Interpret their findings • Communicate their historical knowledge and understanding appropriately • Evaluate their learning and compare with other historical periods studied as appropriate 	Pupil Voice will show: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A developed understanding of the methods and skills of historians at an age appropriate level • A progression of understanding, with appropriate vocabulary which supports and extends understanding • Confidence in discussing history, their own work and identifying their own strengths and areas for development
