Pinkery

Our Year 6 were lucky enough to go on their residential this month to Pinkery in Exmoor. The first day was filled with problem solving tasks and team building activities, followed by the low ropes course. They ended the day with a walk across the moors where they came across the peat bogs! Some of the children attempted to cross the bog and became 'stuck in the mud!'

The next day started with archery and mountain boarding, followed by bush craft where they learnt how to start a campfire. The evening was filled with smores, camp songs and plenty of laughs.

The third and final day involved rock climbing at the Valley of Rocks and a walk into Lynmouth along the south west coastal path. A very fun few days had by all.

We asked the children what their favourite experience was from their time at Pinkery:

Amelia – Mountain Boarding and Rock Climbing
Joby - Zooming down the hill on a mountain board

Tahlia - Falling in a peat bog!

Tyler – Having to pull Zoe and Charlotte out of the bog
OLIVIA - EVERYONE FALLING IN THE BOG

Poppy C - Mountain boarding and low ropes
KAIYA – MOUNTAIN BOARDING, LOW ROPES AND SETTING FIRE TO THE WOOL

Jacob - Watching everyone fall in the bog
ZOE - ROCK CLIMBING AND ABSEILING

Wilf – Rock climbing
Kaiden - Rock climbing and mountain boarding

Alfred - Mountain boarding
JACK – LIGHTING FIRES WITH THE FLINT AND STEEL
LOTTIE - BUSH CRAFT AND MOUNTAIN BOARDING

Charlotte – Rock climbing and mountain boarding
