OUR BOOK DAY THEME

Our book day has been themed around the book 'Love is...' by Sarah Maycock. This beautiful collection of animal similes celebrates love in its many different forms

Love is LOUD, like a peacock proudly flashing its iridescent eyes for all to see. But sometimes love sings a quieter song, soft as the evening chorus, but no less strong. There are lots of ways that we can feel loved and give love. Love Is... explore themes such as self-love, a parent's love for new baby, the bond between siblings, friendship, fighting for what you believe in and missing someone who's no longer there.

We have used watercolours to recreate pages from this beautiful book, used drama to act out pages and used our love of reading to create our own books in the same style, titled 'Reading is...'

Who am I? - Chair of Governors

A bit about me....

I grew up in Ashcott, attending Ashcott and then Crispin school. When I moved back to the area I was encouraged to join the governing board because of my job as an accountant. This combined with wanting to engage with our new community led me to volunteer as a governor shortly after we moved to Edington. More than 7 years have now passed and I have recently become chair of the board. When I'm not at work, or at the school I'm spending much loved time with my husband and our two children.
